

US ARMY WAR COLLEGE
CARLISLE BARRACKS, PENNSYLVANIA

OFFICE OF THE COMMANDANT

12 February 1962

Dear Mr. Amory:

The US Army War College requests the honor of your participation in its eighth annual National Strategy Seminar to be held at Carlisle Barracks, Pennsylvania, during the period 5-8 June 1962.

From your previous associations with the College, I know that you are familiar with the purposes of the annual Seminar. As a participant you will join with approximately one hundred other distinguished military and civilian guests, and the members of the College, in discussions of important problems relating to a proposed national strategy for the United States.

You will be a guest of the College during your stay at Carlisle Barracks. All arrangements for your accommodation will be made by the College unless you specifically request otherwise. Unfortunately, College funds are not available to cover transportation costs.

We are confident that you will find the association and free exchange of ideas stimulating and mutually rewarding. The inclosed Prospectus provides further information relative to the purpose of the Seminar, guest speakers anticipated, and the mission and curriculum of the College.

The success of the Seminar depends upon the participation of civic-minded leaders and authorities in a variety of fields.

Appreciating your past interest and support of the College, it is our hope that you will be able to join with us in this Seminar.

Sincerely,
